

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 12/16/2019 9:00:00 AM

First name: Dorothy

Last name: Lyons

Organization:

Title:

Comments: As a citizen of this country, I ask that public lands formerly protected under the Roadless Rule retain their protection. The value of public resources such as the Tongass National Forest to us as citizens is much higher in conservation -- as carbon sinks, as biodiversity reservoirs, as tourism attractions-- than as a source for short term private profit that results in long term public resource loss -- and by activities such as logging that are heavily subsidized by taxpayers.

[Position]

[Position]