

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 12/16/2019 9:00:00 AM

First name: Priscilla

Last name: Stuckey

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Logging in the Tongans should not be permitted. In a time of rapidly worsening climate change, forests are massive stores of carbon. The Tongass stores more carbon removed from the atmosphere than any other national forest. Even cutting a road into a roadless National Forest is massively destructive to the balance of life, disturbing and destroying bird and animal nesting places and migration routes and introducing systemic soil erosion. No logging in Tongas! Stop this lunacy immediately.

[Position]

[Position]