

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 12/21/2019 11:19:19 AM

First name: Kim Hulse

Last name: Blankenship

Organization:

Title:

Comments: It is not humanly possible for the forest service to plan and consider such a large project in so little time; to do so without public input is just sneaky. This is not how the USFS operated in the past. That said, this project would cause erosion as it is planned. Also, why would herbicides be used when they would poison our watersheds (which would poison ourselves). This project must not progress without great scrutiny and questioning.