U.S. Forest Service Alaska Roadless Rule Committee:

Why do we have to plunder and pillage ALL of our precious resources? I vehemently oppose lifting this roadless rule, which is clearly in the vein of trying to line the pockets of individuals and their companies. This planet is on shaky terms - it doesn't take a genius to figure that out. Stop the madness!

The Roadless Rule has been instrumental in conserving the Tongass National Forest and in supporting its fish and wildlife-based industries for almost 20 years. Please uphold the Rule's protections for important fish and wildlife areas, including the Tongass 77. Roadless areas are an important source of food, jobs, and income through commercial, subsistence, and recreational fishing. Salmon are part of Alaska's culture and we must protect them and their spawning streams. Please do not roll back roadless area protections for habitat that our irreplaceable fish and wildlife populations need to survive.

Sincerely,

Edward Hughes
