Comments: My Comments Re Rec Fees

To Whom It May Concern,

Seniors should be exempt from these fees for many reasons: (1) financial, (2) health - mental and physical, (3) spontaneity. I'm 74 years of age, and trying to stay healthy. If the day is pretty and the weather pleasant, I like to pick a trail and go for a long walk. Trying to get a permit in the spur of the moment will make it almost impossible to be spontaneous in getting some fresh air and exercise, and will add an element of stress that I don't need. Also, one little senior walking on a trail won't cause the kind of damage to which you refer.
