

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 1/4/2020 6:54:14 PM

First name: Daniel

Last name: Coward

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Please consider carefully, if the public is not allowed to influence the decision of what to do with public land, it is no longer public but private. How long before citizens no longer want their taxes to pay for land that they have no influence over? One of the principal arguments that led to the founding of this nation is "no taxation without representation", removing public input from decisions like this is precisely taxation without representation.