

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 1/7/2020 4:20:57 PM

First name: Branan

Last name: Edgens

Organization:

Title:

Comments: I grew up in NW Georgia and camping in the Chattahoochee National Forest was one of my most important formative experiences. Maintaining it's sovereignty is an investment in the spiritual and educational growth of future generations who will become better, more responsible citizens for their encounters there. Destroying any part of it for short term gain will create untold future deficits in the public health.