Comments: Recall the lyrics to the song take me home country roads by John Denver. It may bring about feelings of happiness, feeling of running through the woods barefoot, the smell of pine. It may bring images of family sitting in rocking chairs on the porch, winding trails, winding mountain roads. My family has lived in this area for generations. My mother lives on the edge of this forest (literally). I never thought in a million years that it could all be taken away. How could you destroy something so old? This is devastating to me and my family, taking away quality of life for not just my family I am sure. I implore to who it may concern to reconsider this project. Try to see it through the families eyes that this will effect. This land is sacred to us.
