

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 1/8/2020 3:59:29 PM

First name: Katherine

Last name: Barich

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Hello,

I have been following the hard won success of pulling the Black Footed Ferret back from extinction. As a species, they are still a fragile community. I object to any plan that advocates the removal of Prairie Dogs that provide the only food source for this endangered community. It is important that humans maintain that lands for animal use first. I see no compelling reason to remove the current restrictions.