Comments: Must we destroy every last piece of untouched nature before we'll realize it's too late to save our planet for future generations? Are we so pathetically selfish and short-sighted that we are willing to sacrifice the lives of our children to satisfy our unrelenting greed?

No, we don't have to, and no, we don't have to be. We choose to be. And to choose that is simply wrong. Look within yourselves and see that it is wrong. And see that you can do the right thing instead. Choose to sacrifice your greed, not your children. Sacrifice your bloated egos, not the wellbeing of every creature on earth. Do the right thing TODAY. NO to this backwards, ignorant proposal and YES to preserving our natural habitats!
