

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 1/9/2020 12:50:11 AM

First name: Ali

Last name: Van Zee

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Asking you to stand up for our wildlife. It has been long known that prairie dogs are essential and beneficial to the health of our grasslands. Killing them increases risks of poor soil aeration which kills the plants many prairie dwellers need. It also increases the risks from fires and floods. We have to stop these killings! The public doesn't want it! Stop being so beholden to greedy corporate interests.