Data Submitted (UTC 11): 1/9/2020 1:46:20 AM
First name: Norris
Last name: Wootton
Organization:
Title:
Comments: I believe that national forests belong to American citizens. They are not for profit and greed. I strongly oppose the blank check that the Forest Service wants to log and burn anywhere it wants to for the next forty years. That is completely insane.

It may be acceptable for the Forest Service to do some logging, only if ALL of the areas to be logged are disclosed BEFORE the end of the public comment period. That means before Friday, January 10th!