

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 1/9/2020 2:48:41 PM

First name: Joe

Last name: Katter

Organization:

Title:

Comments: I grew up hunting grouse in the North Georgia mountains. 100% of that hunting took place on WMA's and National Forest. In the 80s there was great habitat due to the Forrest management practices of the time. Those practices changed and now there are little to no grouse left and deer sign is almost non existent. Please consider going back to some of the old ways that actually benefits the wildlife that called these areas home.