

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 1/9/2020 7:22:28 PM

First name: Neil

Last name: Funk

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Chattahoochee Forest would benefit from logging and creating more wildlife openings. Current forest status has too much old growth forest which is detrimental to deer, turkey and grouse populations. Old growth forest benefits bear and hog populations but little else. We need a more balanced approach to managing the forest which includes logging and some clearcutting.