Comments: I have paddled, splashed, fished, and swam in the Chattooga since I was a child. As a newly minted parent of all of 4 months, the idea that I won't be able to take my son down that same river and see the same landscape and clear waters terrifies me. While I understand that the use must be "the most good for the most amount of people", I beg of you, find that "most good" somewhere else. We don't have many wild rivers left in the South, where you can paddle all day without seeing development or clearcuts. Please keep this one intact, as it is.
