

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 1/10/2020 1:01:33 AM

First name: Wilson

Last name: Elias

Organization:

Title:

Comments: The Chattahoochee National Forest is long overdue for an improvement for habitat not only for fresh water fish, but also for deer herds and turkey. It is imperative to build up a habitat and conservation program capable of sustaining wild life for generations to enjoy. This is especially true given the current sedentary and indoor state of our current society. More opportunity will lead to increased participation.