Data Submitted (UTC 11): 1/10/2020 1:53:44 AM
First name: Kelly
Last name: Hundley
Organization:
Title:
Comments: I am definitely opposed to the plan to ravage a beauty like this forest for timber. Conservationists and ecologists appear to be overwhelmingly opposed to this plan. I live near the affected area. I do so for the beauty and the wildlife it holds. I have also seen nothing that suggests a need to cull the forest. Can we leave alone the beauty God created just once or are we destined to say that the only good tree is one cut down or paved over?