

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 1/10/2020 3:17:29 AM

First name: Scott

Last name: Medeiros

Organization:

Title:

Comments: National Forests are public land for public use. The public must have a say in what happens to our recreational land. The logging destruction and poor stewardship of these forests almost eliminated them completely 100 years ago. The people that use these lands must be allowed to protect them and their ecosystems from harm in the future as well.