

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 1/10/2020 9:05:56 PM

First name: Robert

Last name: Schulz

Organization:

Title:

Comments: There needs to be more time for public input. Looks and sounds like it beifits the logging industry not the general public who enjoy the trails and just being in the woods. We need more hiking trails not less more places to camp not less and hebacides do more harm than good poluting the ground water etc. Quit working for the logging, mining industries and get input from the people who really own the public land the tax payers.