Data Submitted (UTC 11): 1/10/2020 11:29:35 PM
First name: Keith
Last name: Keene
Organization:
Title:
Comments: Our National Forest are truly an American Treasure! Expert management is essential. Public input is just as important. The Foothills Landscape Project serves as a roadmap for the preservation, public use and ecological and economic use of this great resource. The range of options and opinions available through the public comment process is valuable to decision makers and insures that the management process is transparent and collaborative. Please continue the public input process.