Data Submitted (UTC 11): 1/11/2020 12:40:25 AM
First name: David
Last name: Wilkes
Organization:
Title:
Comments: Your proposed approach to ecosystem management using general frameworks without specific details is disingenuous and skirts the intent of our federal laws protecting the forests that many of us use and want to remain as undisturbed as possible.

I'm an avid backpacker in the National forests and I want the opportunity to comment on specific impacts due to specific threats to maintaining wilderness in these forests. Therefore, I oppose the proposals that allow any blanket authority for the Forest Service to approve things without public participation.