Comments: Let's use the heart & brain combined, shall we?
Why not adopt out the horses that you all feel shouldn't "be there".
Think of it this way.
There are WAAAAAY tooooooo many humans on this planet.
Why aren't y'all trying to bump them off???

Create an adopt program. Really. Seriously.
NONE of us have the right to murder another....right?
What the hell have these animals ever done to you?
Just because of GREED, you want to kill these animals?
Come On...wake up.

Yep--there IS such a thing as "karma".
Be careful what actions you choose.
Make your actions kind & thoughtful.

There truly should be an adopt program.
If having wild horses bother you all so much...you should move.

I am trying to be polite because that is the way I was raised & taught.
But it is very hard to always do so when I see morons, idiots & greed taking over.
