

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 2/14/2020 8:45:27 PM

First name: Linda

Last name: Brunner

Organization:

Title:

Comments: As with most public lands designated for wild horses and burros, they have been over used by cattle and sheep grazers and oil and gas drilling and that puts the wild horses who do much less damage to forage and water sheds at risk.

Get the cattlemen and other moochers off the public lands. They are consuming the bulk of the forage and damaging the fragile hill sides as they go. Those sorts of freebies should not impact public lands.