Comments: To whom it may concern:

I am pleading with you to allow these horses to continue to live here in the forests that are now and have always been their home. They deserve to stay. All of them, not just the allotted for 104. They are living creatures and the shooting down of these beautiful horses needs to also stop. These forests were they're home before humans even set foot here. We have no right to decide where they roam OR to confine them to a 3 mile section of land when this is THEIR land, not ours. We are humans. How would you like it if I just came and knocked on YOUR door even if you weren't harming anyone and told you to get out? Leave these beautiful creatures and their home be.
