

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 2/19/2020 9:41:18 PM

First name: Ed

Last name: Anon

Organization:

Title:

Comments: As more and more people drive our mountain roads it has become difficult and dangerous to bicycle along these mountain highways. Having a bicycle path separate from the highway would help bicycle commuters to safely navigate a beautiful mountain highway as well as being an economic boon to the surrounding areas. Long distance bikeways draw a steady stream of bicycle tourists who want to enjoy the surrounding scenery without defying death by riding the highways.