

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 2/22/2020 3:36:08 PM

First name: Stephanie

Last name: Teskey

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Management of these feral horses is critical to our natural resources. Allowing emotions and ignorance of some is not a substitute for science. These are not wild horses, they are feral horses who if left alone will have catastrophic effects on the forest. This tourist attraction is costly to tax payers and is an animal welfare issue for these horses. The population of horses needs to be reduced further than stated in this management plan.