

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 2/22/2020 7:06:18 PM

First name: Marielle

Last name: Marne

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Why don't we let the horses remain free in the territory they have established? To prevent an overpopulation, a simple birth control shot in the mares will curb more births. We need wild places and wild things and these animals, representing all that is good from the Wild West, should be protected and left in peace. We need greater penalties for anyone who harms them. I vote on the side of the Heber horses.