Comments: I find it very difficult to believe that these horses and cattle can't co-exist on the grasslands they now occupy. It would appear that the BLM, Fish and Wildlife and the Cattlemen's Association will not be satisfied until all of the remaining herds of wild horses are gone. Taking them from living wild and free and shipping them to the forsaken life in a holding pen and awaiting the death sentence to send them to slaughter is unimaginable. You are taking horses out only to replace them with cattle from another state? Please take a long look at the injustice you will cause and the lost beauty of the wild horses of America.
