

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 2/23/2020 10:09:02 PM

First name: Mary

Last name: Murray

Organization:

Title:

Comments: I believe that the emphasis should be on the survival of the wild horses and burros in viable herds with lots of diversity to ensure a wide gene pool and the survival of the herds. There is an overpopulation of cattle on the range and this should be addressed before any removal of horses. A reintroduction of predators, such as wolves would keep all herd numbers in check and revitalize the wilderness area as has happened in Yellowstone.