

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 2/26/2020 10:26:10 PM

First name: kyle

Last name: pomraning

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Expansion of the Mission Ridge ski area infringes upon public lands that are currently open to the public to enjoy back-country skiing and snowshoeing without paying significant recreation fees. Ski areas in WA have already taken over much of the winter terrain in the state that is accessible without a snowmobile and charge high fees that make winter recreation inaccessible to any but wealthy elites.

Please do not commercialize public lands!

Sincerely,

Kyle Pomraning, PhD