

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 2/27/2020 9:05:39 PM

First name: Kevin

Last name: Spratley

Organization:

Title:

Comments: I have personally visited the Heber herds on dozens of occasions and on many of them, I witnessed cattle and horses grazing within a few feet of each other. NEVER at any time have I seen horses damaging the grazing or over-grazing. This attempt to cull the herds in my opinion is all about greed and lack of concern for the horses. There is NO issue with overgrazing.