

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 3/20/2020 7:49:41 PM

First name: Norman

Last name: Bishop

Organization:

Title:

Comments: All other issues aside, it is unacceptable to me that EVERY alternative in the plan includes logging. Intact mature forests like the Clearwater are immeasurably valuable as carbon sinks, and should be preserved at all costs. Logging is a burdensome producer of carbon. It is indefensible to continue to log forests that are our best natural means of preventing calamitous climate change.