Comments: I am in complete support of this expansion. Very seldom are expansion plans as well thought and planned out as well as this one. It has a little bit of stuff for just about all groups. Back country, cross country and downhill. Then things in the summer, such as hiking and mountain biking. Seems like a plan that both singles and families can get behind. I am looking forward to the restaurants and shops, which will add something for the people who enjoy the mountains, but don't really care for the physical activities. Good job!
