Comments: To whom it may concern:

My husband, Russell, and I are huge supporters of everything Mission Ridge does to develop their resort. We think it is a win-win for both people and wildlife.

I am going to make this brief because we are involved with some virus issues with business right now. But I just wanted to get this out before the deadline.

More importantly to let you know how completely dedicated we are to this valley and its resources and activities and places that support interaction in this great outdoors for all of its citizens.

Thank you so much for your consideration. Mission Ridge has a sound management team in place.
