

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 4/7/2020 3:31:27 AM

First name: Curtis

Last name: Kukal

Organization:

Title:

Comments: I am very pleased that the USFS is moving to restore this unnatural pond into a high quality native forested wetland. While there will be some lost fishing opportunities, that will be more than recompensed by opportunities to watch birds/bats/wetland wildlife. Additionally, a restored Gold Creek hydrology will benefit native fish and downstream water users.

Please carefully consider how to maximize the usefulness of the final designs to native amphibians. Please consider including high-quality interpretive signage.