

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 4/18/2020 1:11:33 AM

First name: Gil

Last name: Muhleman

Organization:

Title:

Comments: My natural resources education from OSU has taught me that restoring native species has numerous benefits throughout the ecosystem. Conversely, non-native species often have far reaching implications impeding the health of the ecosystem. Horses are not Native to the Ochoco range and thus should be managed as invasive and their impacts must be taken into consideration. Nothing against horses but the facts are clear... they don't belong here.