

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 4/20/2020 8:42:06 PM

First name: michael

Last name: rifkind

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Dear Forest SERVICE reader, Shrinking or eliminating the Great Burn Recommended Wilderness and allowing motorized and mechanized use is more likely UN-Wildernessing. These changes would have huge negative implications for quiet recreation and would be harmful, perhaps devastating for several sensitive wildlife species, including wolverines and mountain goats.