Data Submitted (UTC 11): 6/2/2020 3:20:42 PM
First name: Brian
Last name: Foley
Organization:
Title:
Comments: The environmental assessment seems to only consider negative impacts of the pipeline project on wildlife, and not the positive impacts. Number one is fire prevention to protect some critical habitat from the next forest fire. Secondly, the addition of water to the habitat, especially in dry years, is certain to be beneficial to the Jemez Mountain salamander. Climate change is impacting negatively on this habitat and some additional water in dry years is certain to mitigate some of the impacts.