

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 6/10/2020 5:36:30 PM

First name: Cynthia

Last name: Zaferatos

Organization:

Title:

Comments: How utterly horrifying to imagine that this previous forest is even considered to be a site for potential logging. As is common knowledge by now, climate change is of utmost importance when considering the preservation of life on this planet. Considering the profound importance of forests to sequester carbon, to provide essential habitats for innumerable species and to contribute to healthy waters, it makes zero sense to even consider compromising such an invaluable, life giving environment.

Sincerely,

Cynthia Zaferatos