

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 6/11/2020 5:07:32 PM

First name: Krista

Last name: Dixon

Organization:

Title:

Comments: The North Fork of the Nooksack River is a pristine wilderness environment, and should be preserved at all costs. Increasing logging along this scenic and wild River would put the entire ecosystem at risk. This river is critical habitat for historic salmon runs.

This river is also critical to recreation, and I believe that logging operations would jeopardize the safety of whitewater kayaking and rafting on this section of river.