

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 6/16/2020 4:06:02 AM

First name: Alison

Last name: Kilroy

Organization:

Title:

Comments: I'm very concerned about the Forest Service's proposal for logging in the Nooksack River watershed. These forests are entire ecosystems not just trees. This ecosystem benefits us all with creating clean air and water. It supports our hopes for Salmon recovery. The process of logging creates damage that can never be replaced. Ever.