

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 6/17/2020 3:54:26 PM

First name: Anon

Last name: Anon

Organization:

Title:

Comments: It seems that the one of the main drivers of this proposal to limit dispersed camping on public lands is the outcry from homes across the road in a number of communities built around a golf course.

Perhaps they should have built the golf course farther off of the highway and left some of the trees as a border so they could not see the public lands, instead of complaining about the inconvenience.

Let public lands stay public.