

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 6/25/2020 3:07:54 AM

First name: Judy

Last name: Fruhbauer

Organization:

Title:

Comments: The impact on the Nooksack people has been underestimated and will reduce their quality of life. The quality and flow of water will be compromised for their usage. The Southern Resident Orcas are headed towards extinction. This project will further reduce the number of salmon available to them. The JKL pods have already responded to the shortage of salmon by dividing their pods into much smaller groups hoping that at least some will survive.