

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 6/28/2020 9:16:09 PM

First name: Susan

Last name: Tommervik

Organization:

Title:

Comments: I object to logging on this massive scale in the Nooksack Watershed. This vast of a venture would have extreme negative impacts on the carbon sequestration provided to the northwest and the planet for years to come. WE have not logged on this scale since the last century! Very unwise and damaging to our local ecosystems.

A full EIS must be required for logging at this scale. Consequences would be huge and need to be carefully analyzed.