

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 6/29/2020 3:52:53 PM

First name: Carl

Last name: Walker

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Mark Twain once wrote that the reason land was so expensive was because they weren't making it anymore. That is certainly true of our wilderness and wetland areas in the Holy Cross Wilderness. I strongly appose the proposed exploratory drilling for Whitney reservoir. Every acre of this precious land deserves protection. In addition, we already know the geology of the area is unstable and not suitable for dams. Thank you for your attention to my concerns.