

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 7/1/2020 12:59:50 AM

First name: John

Last name: Bosche

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Please do not allow logging along this valuable and important stretch of the Nooksack River. The river is critical salmon habitat, and also provides agricultural and drinking water to the population of Whatcom County. This area is also a very scenic area that hosts important tourist and recreation activities. Logging in this area would threaten the way of life in Whatcom County, and likely also violate treaties with the Lummi and Nooksack nations.