

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 7/5/2020 12:00:43 AM

First name: louise

Last name: teal

Organization:

Title:

Comments: I am concerned that Purgatory Resort's proposed expansion north of the Ice Creek Lift Pod will be pushed through without proper study of the consequences to the wildlife, primarily the Lynx habitat and cutthroat trout reintroduction. In addition, any such expansion would result in extensive cutting of mature forest spruce.

There certainly seems increasing wildlife disturbing activity in the mountains these days. Let's not add anymore such activity.