

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 7/9/2020 11:50:57 PM

First name: Anon

Last name: Anon

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Increased ski area capacity is crucial to reducing systemic racism and unaffordability for all. The undersupply of skiing facilities, as well as the expensive regulatory compliance burden of the expansion process, raises prices which disproportionately negatively affect minorities and is thus systemic racism. Thus not only should the project be approved it should be done so swiftly and with minimal burden on the applicant.