

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 8/13/2020 9:59:18 PM

First name: Eamon

Last name: Galbraith

Organization:

Title:

Comments: I am writing to oppose the changes that would allow the cutting of large (21"+) trees. The eastside forests are still recovering from a century of poor management and over logging. The USFS should be working to return these forests to their previous state by retaining as many large trees as possible. Large trees are more fire resistant and provide critical habitat.

thank you