

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 8/13/2020 7:00:00 AM

First name: Nancy

Last name: Hilding

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Nancy Hilding to Forest Service.

I object to the proposed changes. I highly value having large old yellow barks in the landscape. They are more fire resistant to ground fires. Large and/or dense trees provide habitat as live or dead trees for many birds and bats and some squirrels.

Please continue to have a moratorium on cutting large diameter trees.